

Membership

JOIN NOW for exclusive membership benefits

Who joins?

Current membership stands at over 700 worldwide and includes medical microbiologist, infectious disease consultants, pharmacists, infection control specialists, scientists, those working in the pharmaceutical industry, and other health professionals working in the field of antimicrobial chemotherapy.

How do I join?

By completing the membership application form.

What do I get?

Members receive:

- Subsidised subscription to the Journal
- Reduced registration and some complimentary registration to BSAC conferences and events
- Opportunity to be appointed to working parties, committees, council and other positions within the society
- Eligibility to apply for travel grants and other funded opportunities
- Superb networking opportunities, discounted registration and some complimentary registration to BSAC conferences and events
- Access to member-only education resources and e-learning materials

The annual subscription fee for 2012 will be £46.00 (online access to JAC) or £87.50 (print and online versions of JAC) or you can choose to pay £36.00 (No journal option). Fees are payable by cheque, credit/debit card, money order or by direct debit if resident in the UK.

Application Form

-  Membership Form 2012

