

10. Enterococci

Problem	Comment
Failure to detect glycopeptide resistance	The problem is usually solved if plates are incubated for 24 h to allow micro-colonies within the zone edge to be seen more easily. It is helpful to use good light and a hand lens when examining zones of inhibition.